The Kentucky Stakes was the re at Saratoga this afternoon, but, like the Hopeful on Saturday, it was spoiled by the start. Two horses were left at the post, and Candida was sent way is front with a flying break. This gave Candida such an advantage that others had practically no chance.

Candida is a very speedy filly and might have won any way, but when a lly gets the best of a break the have little chance of catching Czaraphine, theh favorite, took the effort she made in overhauling Candida made her stop at the end. and Hildebrand had to ride his harhdest to beat Fleur de Marie for the place.

Eiliott beat all the good things in the Eiliott bea handicap very easily. A world of money was bet on Dalesman, but second was the best he could do. The weather was fine and attendance good.

Jockey Reifern was examined by a prominent New York surgeon this morning, and it was found that his shoulder and been broken by the accident of four lays ago, when Irascible and Trepan feel in a race. This will keep Redfern but of the saddle for some time.
Charlic Gates and William Scheftel own polo ponies. Each believed he had the fastest. A wager of $500 was the result, and the ponies ran three furlongs over the Saratoga track for the purse this morning. Gates won easily.

Piret a Good Betting Event. Mimosa was a strong choice in the opening event. Armenia opened at 5 to 2, went back to 3 to 1 and was backed down to 2 or 1 at the close. Jane Holly and Ishlana were nibbled at, Armenia beat the gate, but Mimosa joined her at once, and they raced head and head to the far turn, followed by Ishlana, Wild Thyme and Girdle in a close bunch. There was no change until they straightened for home. There Wild Thyme closed strong, and Hildebrand cut loose with Mimosa, getting home a length and a half in front of Wild Thyme, who beat armenia four lengths for the place.

Tip Went Wrong. Daffo Down Dilly made the early pace, but at the end of a mile Sea Guil went to the front and stayed there with ease, winning by six lengths from Bonfire, who finished out strong and beat Librette a length and a half for the place. Sea Guil was the flavorite, but Daffo Down Dilly was the tip and heavily grayed.

Down Dilly was the tip and heavily glayed.

Start Settled Race.

Caraphine was the choice in the Candida the second choices. The race was no contest for the starter sent the seld away in ragged fashion with Candida a length and a half in front. Candida was never caught, for the advantage she had at the start was too much to overcome, and she won breating by four lengths. Caraphine was second all the way, beating Fleur de Marie a head in a hard drive for the place.

This was a great betting race. Knight Errant was the obening favorite, but fater a deluge of money was poured into the ring on Dalesman by Jesse Lawisohn and Joe Yeager, which caused Knight Errant to go back to it Joek Martin rode Knight Errant the way, and was bedly beaten. Dalesman male a sknog bid but could not get the money. Ada Nay and Elliott raced head and head followed by Dalesman. Audients and Knight Errant, bedds apart. They hald this order to the far turn. When the money had this order to the far turn. When add his order to the far turn.

Desperate Charge Made All Along the Russian Front from Wolf Hills to the Take Mountains, at Port Arthur, but the Czar's Troops Meet the Assault and in Fierce Fighting Beat the Enemy Back.

BATTLE RENEWED WITH VIGOR ON LAND AND SEA

Determined Attempt by the Mikado's Men to Take Besieged City, But Russians Seem Confident of Holding It-Czar Loses Two More of His Warships, the Japanese Sinking Them in Fight,

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 15.-Advices from Gen. Stoessel at Port Arthur and Viceroy Alexieff report a dogged attack upon Port Arthur by the Japanese on Aug. 10, following the departure of the Russian fleet.

The Japanese in enormous force inaugurated the attack on the nice of Aug. 9, when, by sheer force of numbers, they overran the defer of Taku and Siaothu Mountains in a fight lasting fifteen hours. The Japanese were mowed down in rows by the defenders, but for every ro that fell there were soldiers to step into place.

On the night of Aug. 10 in a driving rainstorm the Japanese acked the east front of the defending army. They were repulsed all along the line. Later on they made a simultaneous attack on the whole Russian front from Wolf Hills to Taku Mountain,

It is impossible to estimate the losses the Japanese have susta the past few days outside Port Arthur. They charge in swarms and swarms. Against the strongly fortified positions of the Russians dash their army like a great wave, and time after time it falls back bro

The reports from Gen. Stoessel and Viceroy Alexieff have revived the bellef that Port Arthur cannot be taken by direct attack. The about the best vessels in the fleet is not considered a serious matter, as the batteries commanding the harbor entrance are considered able to take of the Japanese warships should they venture within range. Despatches from Chefoc say that a combined land and sea attack made at sunrise to-day and that fighting continued all day.

JAPANESE REINFORCED. A Mukden despatch reports that the Japanese at Port Arthur have argely reinforced in the past few days and that they have taken up tions in two large bodies. One is on the heights between Lungwun Pigeon Bay, and the other on the hills near Louisa Bay. Guns also be been placed on the heights east of Wolf Hill.

It is also reported from Mukden that operations in Manchuria have been suspended for the time being and that the main force of the January army is now directing all its strength to the taking of Port Arthur. this last cannot be verified it is estimated that if such plans have been carried out nearly 300,000 men are gathered before Port Arthur.
